

Stefano Marsella, Ministry of Interior - CNVVF

"Future directions for wildfire evacuation modelling" theme: evacuation during wildfire and next generation of decision support systems.

BIO:

Stefano Marsella, has been working since 1988 in the Italian National Fire and Rescue Services (CNVVF), where he serves as Regional Director. He has coordinated the participation of the CNVVF to several EU research and development projects aimed at improving the management of emergency through the application of ICT. During its career he has acquired experience in the fields of fire safety and fire safety engineering.